Dundonald PS – Years 12-14

Dundonald Primary School are holding an event on Tuesday 18th June and have asked for volunteers from BCS. If any pupil from Years 12 to 14 has an exam-free day, can get to Dundonald Primary School independently, and is interested in taking part, she should let Mr Greer, or his PA, know and he will supply further details.

Social Media reminder

As a school, we work hard to educate pupils about appropriate use of social media and the potential implications of misuse. With this in mind, we would kindly request that parents would continue to monitor their daughter's use of social media. Excellent advice is available on the Education Authority website: search 'Safeguarding' and/or 'Social Media'.

Uniform Reminder

Pupils have been given permission to wear plain black, sports leggings, official Kukri leggings (currently stocked in Podium sport only), or school track-suit bottoms for participation in PE and Games. Please note that they must be designed for sport, not fashion leggings. However, unless granted permission by staff, these must not be worn to and from school in place of full school uniform. If given permission to wear a hoodie, this must be the official Bloomfield Collegiate School hoodie.

Ulster Schools' Athletics

Well done to all who competed at last Saturday's Ulster Schools' Athletics championships in Antrim. Notably, Tilly Askin was placed 3rd in the Mini Shot, Lucy Kerr took bronze in the Junior 100m and 6th in the 200m, Heidi Mitchell came 6th in the Senior 800m and Faye Nixon came 4th in the Senior Hammer. Amy McMurray was very unlucky not to medal in the Intermediate Triple Jump.

Thanks also to the group of Year 9 girls who volunteered to assist the officials.

Sixth Form Enrolment

We are keen to offer opportunities for pupils to join us for Sixth Form studies. If you have a daughter or friend who would like to come to Bloomfield to study A levels, and/or BTEC qualifications via our partner schools, please contact the school for details.
